2026 PASFAA Conference Agenda

The Penn Stater Hotel & Conference Center | State College, PA

Monday, 10/26/26

Time	Session / Description	Location	Presenters
8:00 AM - 9:30 AM	Exhibitor Setup	Presidents Hall 1234
9:00 AM - 4:30 PM	Conference Registration Open	Conference Registration Desk II
9:00 AM - 11:00 AM	Beverages available	Refreshment Break Area - Presidents Hall Lobby
9:30 AM - 11:00 AM	Exhibitor Area Open	Presidents Hall 1234
11:00 AM - 11:30 AM	Conference Kickoff: PASFAA President's Welcome/Business Meeting	Presidents Hall 1234	Robin Walker, Wilkes University & PASFAA President Christy Snedeker, Wilkes University & PASFAA Treasurer Shelby Maguire, Lafayette College & PASFAA Secretary
11:30 AM - 12:30 PM	PASFAA Committee-ment: Becoming a Rock Star Committee Chair Great committees don't happen by accident—they happen because of strong leadership. Whether you're a new chair or looking to take your committee to the next level, this session will explore practical strategies for setting a vision, facilitating productive meetings, engaging volunteers, delegating effectively, and keeping projects on track. Through real-world examples, interactive discussion, and a few lessons borrowed from the world of rock and roll, you'll leave with tools and ideas to help your committee perform at its best. Inspired by the belief that great committees don't just perform—they perform together.	Presidents Hall 1234	Julie Lawton, Monogram
12:30 PM - 1:30 PM	Monday Lunch Buffet/EASFAA Update/Charity Introduction	Presidents Hall 1234	Nick Prewett, Stonybrook University & EASFAA President Paige Ford, PA Vent Camp
1:30 PM - 4:15 PM	Exhibitor Area Open	Presidents Hall 1234
1:45 PM - 2:35 PM
1:45 PM - 2:35 PM	PA State Grant/RTSS Academic Progress Reviews	Room 207	Jana Madar, PHEAA Brandyn Whitmyer, Millersville University
1:45 PM - 2:35 PM	Mindful Leadership in Times of Crisis: Leading Others Without Burning Out Between constant federal updates, administrative shifts, and dwindling campus resources, financial aid leaders are being asked to do more with less while maintaining poise for their staff and senior administration. As the exodus of seasoned professionals leaves critical leadership gaps, how do we step into these roles without sacrificing our own well-being? This interactive session bridges the realities of financial aid leadership with mindful, sustainable management practices. We'll discuss actionable tools for setting boundaries, prioritizing amidst chaos, and supporting a team through fatigue. Designed for both current directors and emerging leaders, this session provides realistic encouragement and proven strategies to help you lead with purpose, protect your team, and thrive in the face of continuous industry evolution.	Room 105	Nick Prewett, Stonybrook University & EASFAA President

Time	Session / Description	Location	Presenters
1:45 PM - 2:35 PM	AI in Financial Aid - What Works, What Doesn't, and What Comes Next Artificial intelligence is rapidly making its way into financial aid offices, but not all AI tools are created equal. In this session, we'll explore how financial aid professionals are using AI today, where generic AI tools fall short, and why purpose-built, regulation-informed AI is critical for navigating complex student scenarios. We'll discuss the importance of data security, FERPA considerations, and regulatory grounding, and invite participants to share their own experiences, questions, and concerns about adopting AI responsibly in financial aid operations.	Room 106	Eddie Salazar, Peach
1:45 PM - 2:35 PM	Beyond the Content: Lessons Learned from Five Years of College Student Financial Wellness The University of Pittsburgh Financial Wellness Center was launched during the 2020–2021 academic year in the midst of the COVID-19 pandemic. Over the past five years, our team has learned that traditional financial literacy topics alone are often insufficient to address the real financial challenges students face.	Room 208	Joel Philistin, University of Pittsburgh Janet McLaughlin, University of Pittsburgh
1:45 PM - 2:35 PM	Montessori Pedagogy in Higher Ed: Communications with students Finding yourself repeating things over and over? Dealing with students and families with big feelings? Congratulations! You're halfway to early childhood education! I'm a former Montessori Toddler guide who has found Montessori pedagogy immensely helpful. Let's talk.	Room 104	Stacy Finnigan, Northampton Community College
2:35 PM - 3:00 PM	Snack and Beverage Break/Visit the Business Partners/Check out the charity baskets at the Business Partner tables! Sponsored by: College Ave and Sallie Mae The Penn Stater Hotel and Conference Center has a great refreshment break area with fountain sodas, coffee, hot tea, and fun snacks! We are pleased to offer these throughout the days of the conference!	Refreshment Break Area (1st and 2nd floors)
3:00 PM - 3:50 PM
3:00 PM - 3:50 PM	Clock Hour Programs: Packaging, R2T4s, Attendance and More Clock-hour programs present unique compliance challenges, from packaging and disbursement timing to attendance monitoring and Return of Title IV Funds calculations. Greg Rinderle, Title IV Compliance Auditor, will review key requirements and common areas of confusion, with a focus on how attendance and academic progress affect Title IV administration. Attendees will gain practical insight into strengthening processes, improving documentation and avoiding common compliance issues.	Room 105	Greg Rinderle, FAAC®, McClintock and Associates
3:00 PM - 3:50 PM	The Red Flag Game (Verification) Conflicting information is a serious red flag! Join this interactive, game-style session where participants work in teams to review real-world inspired financial aid files and identify potential red flags across verification, professional judgment, and conflicting information scenarios. Attendees will decide whether each file is clean, needs follow-up, or presents a compliance concern, then we will break down the regulatory guidance and best practices behind each decision. This session focuses on building consistency in file review, strengthening documentation, and increasing confidence in spotting issues early while keeping it engaging, practical, and a little competitive.	Room 208	Tara Verrico, Geneva College
3:00 PM - 3:50 PM	On the Bridge: Steering Social Media with Intention Financial aid offices sit at the center of some of the most urgent, emotional, and misunderstood conversations on campus. On the Bridge: Steering Social Media with Intent helps administrators shift from reactive posting to purposeful communication that clarifies processes, reduces misinformation, and supports students at scale. Rather than treating social media as an extra task, this session shows how to use it as a high-impact service tool—one that improves outreach, reduces call volume, and reinforces compliance-friendly messaging.	Room 106	Janee Knippenberg, Earnest

Time	Session / Description	Location	Presenters
3:00 PM - 3:50 PM	Cohort Default Rates in a Post-COVID Era: What's Changed and What's Next The return of federal student loan repayment has created a new reality for Cohort Default Rates (CDRs). Years of COVID-era payment pauses, flexibilities, and temporary relief measures significantly changed borrower repayment behavior and resulted in artificially low default rates. This session will examine what has changed in the post-pandemic environment, what institutions should expect as the 2024 cohort and beyond begin to emerge, and proactive strategies schools can implement now to reduce default risk and support student borrowers.	Room 207	Justin Welliver, Edamerica
3:00 PM - 3:50 PM	Beyond Burnout: Reclaiming Energy in Financial Aid Financial aid offices are fast-paced, high-pressure environments. Between constant regulation changes, busy seasons, and supporting students through stressful situations, it's easy to feel overwhelmed and burned out. This interactive session will take a real look at what burnout actually looks like in financial aid and why it happens. We'll talk through practical, realistic ways to manage stress, recognize the warning signs early, and build habits that help you stay grounded during peak times. We'll also explore simple ways teams and leaders can create a more supportive and sustainable work environment. Participants will walk away with strategies they can actually use right away to feel more balanced and supported in their day-to-day work.	Room 104	Jamille Medina-Baashit, Saint Joseph's University
3:50 PM - 4:00 PM	Snack and Beverage Break/Visit the Business Partners/Check out the charity baskets at the Business Partner tables! Sponsored by: Sallie Mae and College Ave The Penn Stater Hotel and Conference Center has a great refreshment break area with fountain sodas, coffee, hot tea, and fun snacks! We are pleased to offer these throughout the days of the conference!	Refreshment Break Area (1st and 2nd floors)
4:00 PM - 5:00 PM	OB3: Adjusted Loan Amounts for Less Than Full Time Annual Enrollment Don't call it loan proration. That still exists. But there is a new wrinkle being introduced as part of OB3 that arrived this Fall -- adjustments to Direct loan amounts for annualized less than full time enrollment. This is a new paradigm, and there is complexity here. Come join us as we take a look at some examples, and review the rules (as best we know them now).	Presidents Hall 1234	Daniel Barkowitz, Penn State University
5:00 PM - 6:30 PM	President's Reception Come one, come all! We would like to celebrate the long year we've had!	Presidents Hall 1234
6:30 PM - 6:45 PM	If you signed up for a dinner group hosted by Business Partners, meet your group at the designated meeting spot to take your pre-planned transportation.	Hotel lobby
7:00 PM - 9:00 PM	Don't eat alone! Group dinners available - hosted by Business Partners (pay on your own) Sign up for a restaurant and Business Partner host so you don't have to eat alone! It is a fun way to meet people without any stress! Each person pays on their own and transportation will be provided via Uber/Lyft. Sign up here! https://www.signupgenius.com/go/10C0B4AADA92CABF8C52-66415146-monday#/	Sign up here! https://www.signupgenius.com/go/10C0B4AADA92CABF8C52-66415146-monday#/
8:30 PM - 10:00 PM	Firepits open and s'mores available Ingredients provided by: Robin Walker, Wilkes University and PASFAA President, and Colleen Coudriet, Penn State World Campus and PASFAA Past President Join other PASFAA members outside at the firepits and make your own s'mores! Ingredients provided!	Courtyard outside Conference Center

Tuesday, 10/27/26

Time	Session / Description	Location	Presenters
7:30 AM - 8:30 AM	Breakfast and Financial Aid Management System Roundtables Grab your breakfast and sit with your other colleagues who use the same financial aid management systems as you! We will have tables for schools that use Banner, Colleague, PowerFAIDS, Peoplesoft, and Workday. Join others to talk through the most recent financial aid changes with OB3 to compare notes.	Presidents Hall 1234	Banner: Shelby Maguire, Lafayette College Colleague: Barbie Schmitt, King's College PowerFAIDS: Pam Wolfe, Susquehanna University & Daniel Barkowitz, Penn State University Peoplesoft: Amanda Symanski, Penn State University Workday: Andréa Ruth, Eastern University
8:00 AM - 4:00 PM	Conference Registration Open	Conference Registration Desk II
8:00 AM - 8:30 AM	Exhibitor Area Open	Presidents Hall 1234
8:30 AM - 9:30 AM	The Trust Gap: What Cost Confusion Means for Financial Aid Leaders Misperceptions about college costs are eroding trust in higher education. Drawing on Strada Education Foundation research on perceptions of affordability and the State Opportunity Index, this session explores how financial aid leaders can close the trust gap through student-centered enrollment management practices, models that shorten time to completion, and initiatives that reduce cost and align college investment with opportunity. The session will include actionable strategies to bring back to campus, ranging from clearer price and aid communication to partnering across campus on pathways that lower the total cost of a degree.	Presidents Hall 1234	Stephen Payne, Strada Education Foundation
9:00 AM – 11:00 AM	Snack and Beverage Break/Visit the Business Partners/Check out the charity baskets at the Business Partner tables! Sponsored by: Sallie Mae and College Ave The Penn Stater Hotel and Conference Center has a great refreshment break area with fountain sodas, coffee, hot tea, and fun snacks! We are pleased to offer these throughout the days of the conference!	Refreshment Break Area - Presidents Hall Lobby - Food and Beverages
10:00 AM - 11:00 AM	State Higher Education Policy Updates Join PDE colleagues us for a review and discussion of recent higher education policy changes and implementation across Pennsylvania in 2025-26 and 2026-27. New policy topics will include the PA FAFSA Completion Requirement; an overview of the State Board of Higher Education's newly passed Strategic Plan; an overview of PA Workforce Pell 2026-27 program determination process and next steps. Implementation and recurring updates for existing policies will include Transparency in Costs and Financial Aid related to Act 69, with a focus on learnings from the 2025/26 academic year. Relevant updates on federal financial aid policy including new student loan provisions may be included with ample time for sharing and Question and Answer with department colleagues.	Presidents Hall 1234	Ali Caccavella, Pennsylvania Department of Education

Time	Session / Description	Location	Presenters
11:00 AM - 11:15 AM	Beverage Break/Visit the Business Partners/Check out the charity baskets at the Business Partner tables! The Penn Stater Hotel and Conference Center has a great refreshment break area with fountain sodas, coffee, hot tea, and fun snacks! We are pleased to offer these throughout the days of the conference!	Refreshment Break Area - Presidents Hall Lobby - Beverages Only
11:15 AM - 12:05 PM
11:15 AM - 12:05 PM	Judgment Day: Tackling Professional Judgment with Confidence This presentation will provide financial aid professionals with practical guidance on exercising Professional Judgment authority in compliance with federal regulations and discuss different institutional policies that can be considered. Attendees will review common PJ scenarios, documentation best practices, and recent regulatory updates if applicable. Participants will leave with strategies and tools to support consistent, student-centered decision-making.	Room 208	Nichole Thon, University of Pittsburgh Todd Summers, Penn State University
11:15 AM - 12:05 PM	Navigating Federal Loan Changes: Evolving Borrower Needs Federal loan reform has reshaped borrowing options for parents and graduate students, creating new challenges for institutions across the academic cycle. This session brings schools and lenders together to focus on forward-looking preparation as campuses transition from fall billing into spring enrollment and financing periods. School panelists will share strategies for implementing loan reform and communicating changes in federal loan limits, private loan readiness, and implications for admissions yield. Lender representatives will offer insights into how the industry is adapting to increased reliance on private student loans and evolving borrower demand. Attendees will leave with practical tools and communication strategies to support borrowers, strengthen enrollment outcomes, and navigate the changing loan landscape in the terms ahead.	Room 207	Daniel Barkowitz, Penn State University Robin Walker, Wilkes University & PASFAA President Keri Neidig, Sallie Mae Kat Delgrosso, College Ave Eddie Hill, Citizens Janee Knippenberg, Earnest Amanda Snyder, PHEAA
11:15 AM - 12:05 PM	Why Personality and Leadership Styles Matter for Communication, Difficult Conversations, and your Mental Health This session briefly reviews some of the popular personality and leadership assessments (DiSC, Myers-Briggs, Enneagram) and provides discussion to help you understand yourself and your team and why you work together the way you do. We will discuss practical scenarios and give you tips you can implement to enhance communication and improve your workplace culture.	Room 106	Kim McCurdy, PHEAA Patty Peterson, SoFi
11:15 AM - 12:05 PM	Supporting Student Veterans: Benefits, Insights, and Best Practices Veterans bring unique strengths—and unique challenges—when transitioning from military service to higher education. This session equips financial aid professionals with the tools to support veterans effectively. Learn the key things veterans want you to know, explore strategies for building trust and collaboration, and gain a clear understanding of the education benefits available to veterans. Walk away with practical insights and actionable steps to help those who served succeed in the classroom and beyond.	Room 104	Brandyn Whitmyer, Millersville University
12:05 PM - 12:15 PM	Transition to the President's Hall for our program and lunch!	Refreshment Break Area - Presidents Hall Lobby - Beverages Only
12:15 PM - 12:35 PM	PHEAA CEO Update	Presidents Hall 1234	Jim Steeley, PHEAA CEO
12:35 PM - 2:00 PM	Membership Luncheon, Welcome Past PASFAA Presidents, and Awards	Presidents Hall 1234	Robin Walker, Wilkes University & PASFAA President Jared Menghini, Wilkes University & Past-President
2:00 PM - 2:15 PM	Photos for Past Presidents and Award Winners For Past Presidents and award winners, please plan to have your pictures taken!	Outside Presidents Hall 1234

Time	Session / Description	Location	Presenters
2:00 PM - 2:15 PM	Snack and Beverage Break/Visit the Business Partners/Check out the charity baskets at the Business Partner tables! The Penn Stater Hotel and Conference Center has a great refreshment break area with fountain sodas, coffee, hot tea, and fun snacks! We are pleased to offer these throughout the days of the conference!	Refreshment Break Area - Presidents Hall Lobby
2:15 PM - 3:15 PM	PA Grant and Special Programs Update	Presidents Hall 1234	Elizabeth McCloud, PHEAA
3:15 PM - 5:00 PM	Exhibitor Area Open	Presidents Hall 1234
3:15 PM – 4:00 PM	Snack and Beverage Break/Visit the Business Partners/Check out the charity baskets at the Business Partner tables! Sponsored by: College Ave and Sallie Mae The Penn Stater Hotel and Conference Center has a great refreshment break area with fountain sodas, coffee, hot tea, and fun snacks! We are pleased to offer these throughout the days of the conference!	Refreshment Break Area (1st and 2nd floors)
3:30 PM - 4:20 PM
3:30 PM - 4:20 PM	Pennsylvania National Guard EAP/MFEP Benefits for Servicemembers Discussion about the Pennsylvania National Guard Educational Assistance Program and Military Family Education Program changes and updates.	Room 108	Dana Black, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; Department of Military and Veterans Afffairs (DMVA); Office of Administration (OA); State Education, Incentives, and Support Programs Division
3:30 PM - 4:20 PM	Anticipated Audit Implications After July 1, 2026: OBBBA and R2T4 Changes July 1, 2026, marked the effective date of multiple regulatory changes, with certain provisions available for earlier implementation. Now, four months into this new regulatory environment, Luke Hoey, Title IV Compliance Auditor, will examine where institutions currently stand, where audit risks may emerge and what is and is not currently subject to required audit testing. He will also discuss how institutions can document decisions made in response to evolving Department of Education guidance and identify areas that remain unclear. Please note: This presentation will not provide an in-depth review of the regulatory changes. Instead, it will focus on institutional implementation, documentation considerations, and potential audit implications.	Room 207	Luke Hoey, FAAC®, McClintock and Associates
3:30 PM - 4:20 PM	Importance of Updating Policies and Procedures	Room 104	Kate Brabandt, College Aid Services Tracey Richards, Lehigh Carbon Community College
3:30 PM - 4:20 PM	The Case for Creativity: Why Financial Aid Administrators Need it More than Ever Financial aid has never been more demanding. Burnout, regulatory complexity, and workforce attrition continue to challenge professionals across the field. This presentation explores creativity not as an artistic talent or leisure activity, but as an essential form of self-care and a powerful tool for emotional regulation, stress reduction, and overall well-being. Participants will learn how to reframe creativity from a “nice-to-have” hobby into a practical strategy for improving mental health, quieting overthinking, and building resilience. In a profession dedicated to supporting others, attendees will discover how incorporating creativity into their daily lives can help them navigate the increasing demands of financial aid.	Room 105	Amanda Abreu, Ascent

Time	Session / Description	Location	Presenters
3:30 PM - 4:20 PM	More Than a Paycheck: Transforming Student Employment into Real Office Impact More Than a Paycheck: Transforming Student Employment into Real Office Impact shares how the Financial Aid Office at the University of Pittsburgh transformed student employment from a simple check-in role into a meaningful part of daily office operations. Through mentorship, clear expectations, and intentional training, work study students became active contributors supporting projects, office workflows, and student services. This presentation will highlight lessons learned, challenges faced, and practical strategies for building a student employment program that benefits both the office and the students themselves.	Room 106	Morgan Clark, University of Pittsburgh
4:25 PM - 5:15 PM
4:25 PM - 5:15 PM	Reuniting the PASSHE Sector Family! Birds of a feather session with others from your sector within PASFAA!	Room 208	Alyssa Dobson, Slippery Rock University
4:25 PM - 5:15 PM	Reuniting the State Related Sector Family! Birds of a feather session with others from your sector within PASFAA!	Room 105	Amanda Szymanski, Penn State University
4:25 PM - 5:15 PM	Reuniting the Institutional Support Services Sector (Business Partners) Family! Birds of a feather session with others from your sector within PASFAA!	Room 106	Eddie Hill, Citizens
4:25 PM - 5:15 PM	Reuniting the Graduate/Professional Sector Family! Birds of a feather session with others from your sector within PASFAA!	Room 108	Anthony Naro, Wilkes University
4:25 PM - 5:15 PM	Reuniting the Health Sciences and Career Technology Sector Family! Birds of a feather session with others from your sector within PASFAA!	Room 207	Robin Hall, Reading Hospital School of Health Sciences
4:25 PM - 5:15 PM	Reuniting the Private Sector Family! Birds of a feather session with others from your sector within PASFAA!	Room 205	Barbie Schmitt, King's College
4:25 PM - 5:15 PM	Reuniting the Public Two-Year Sector Family! Birds of a feather session with others from your sector within PASFAA!	Room 104	Tracey Richards, Lehigh Carbon Community College
6:30 PM - 7:30 PM	Dinner Buffet	Presidents Hall 1234
7:30 PM - 10:00 PM	Game Night and Dessert! Including "Escape from Default Island: An Interactive Adventure for Financial Aid Professionals" Charity Basket, 50/50, and Cornhole raffle winners announced! Game Night sponsored by: STARS Campus Solutions In addition to corn hole and other games available for you to play with friends after dinner, we will have "Escape from Default Island" for all of us to work together and play! We need some fun--we've all been working so hard and need a minute for play! Stranded on Default Island, your mission is clear: work together, solve puzzles and escape before time runs out! This immersive escape room experience blends fun and friendly competition with practical learning about federal student loan default. Are you ready to escape?	Presidents Hall 1234	Preston Dodson, Citizens Eddie Hill, Citizens
8:30 PM - 10:00 PM	Firepits open and s'mores available Ingredients provided by: Robin Walker, Wilkes University and PASFAA President, and Colleen Coudriet, Penn State World Campus and PASFAA Past President Join other PASFAA members outside at the firepits and make your own s'mores! Ingredients provided!	Courtyard outside Conference Center

Wednesday, 10/28/26

Time	Session / Description	Location	Presenters
7:00 AM - 8:00 AM	Breakfast	Presidents Hall 1234
8:00 AM - 9:00 AM	Fraud in Financial Aid Fraud has been a growing issue in higher education, we will discuss trends, tools, and changes from ED to help you protect your institution from fraudsters.	Presidents Hall 1234	Alyssa Dobson, Slippery Rock University Tracey Richards, Lehigh Carbon Community College
9:00 AM - 10:00 AM	Exhibitor Area Open	Presidents Hall 1234
9:00 AM - 9:15 AM	Snack and Beverage Break/Visit the Business Partners Sponsored by: College Ave and Sallie Mae	Refreshment Break Area (1st and 2nd floors)
9:15 AM - 10:05 AM
9:15 AM - 10:05 AM	Loan Repayment Counseling Loan Repayment Changes and Strategies	Room 207	Grace Taylor, Moore College of Art & Design
9:15 AM - 10:05 AM	Change Management	Room 105	Sherrie Borden, Penn State University
9:15 AM - 10:05 AM	Understanding the Grow PA & PA-TIP CIP Code Changes Join the PHEAA team for a concise, informative overview of recent Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) Code updates impacting the Grow PA Program and the PA Targeted Industry Program beginning in the 2026–27 academic year. This session will highlight what changed, why it matters, and how institutions can support their students applying for these programs.	Room 208	Christina Aul, PHEAA Erica LeBlanc, PHEAA
9:15 AM - 10:05 AM	Designing an Aid Strategy, Not Just Packaging Students This is where directors can really differentiate: a. Aligning aid awarding with enrollment, retention, and equity goals b. Tradeoffs between leveraging aid vs. access c. When to deviate from traditional packaging models d. Using data to justify strategy shifts to leadership 👉 Bonus: show before/after outcomes from a strategy change.	Room 106	Barbara Schmitt, King's College Hannah Brown, Marywood University
9:15 AM - 10:05 AM	Building Trust Through Financial Aid Counseling Financial aid counseling is often one of the most important conversations students and families have during the college decision process. With changing FAFSA regulations, increasing college costs, and growing concerns about student debt, families are looking for more than just a breakdown of numbers , they want guidance and reassurance. Many families do not know what questions to ask or even where to begin. Being able to identify concerns, guide the conversation, and explain information in a clear and approachable way is critical to helping families feel informed and supported. This session will focus on practical strategies for leading effective financial aid conversations while helping students and families better understand affordability, financing options, and the long-term impact of borrowing. Through real-life examples and common counseling scenarios, attendees will explore ways to simplify complex aid information, navigate difficult conversations with empathy, and build trust during high-stress situations.	Room 104	Christy Snedeker, Wilkes University Brian J. Beighley, University of Pittsburgh - Greensburg
10:05 AM - 10:30 AM	Snack and Beverage Break/Visit the Business Partners/Check out the charity baskets at the Business Partner tables! Sponsored by: Sallie Mae and College Ave	Refreshment Break Area (1st and 2nd floors)

Time	Session / Description	Location	Presenters
10:30 AM - 11:30 AM	Inside the Beltway/Federal Update	Presidents Hall 1234	Will Lindsey, PHEAA
11:00 AM – end of conference	Beverages available	Refreshment Break Area - 1st Floor - Beverages Only
11:30 AM - 12:30 PM	PASFAA Closing Business Meeting/Passing of the Gavel	Presidents Hall 1234	Robin Walker, Wilkes University Christy Snedeker, Wilkes University
12:30 PM - 1:00 PM	Exhibitor Area Breakdown	Presidents Hall 1234
12:30 PM - 2:00 PM	PASFAA Executive Council Meeting	Room 107	