Diversity, Equity & Inclusion (DEI)

What is DEI?

- ❑ Diversity refers to differences among individuals (e.g., race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, religion, socioeconomic status)
- ❑ Equity refers to fair (but not necessarily equal) treatment regardless of one's starting point in life;
- ❑ Inclusion refers to actions that foster feelings of being welcomed, respected and valued.

Led by the vision of Dr. Denise Pearson, Vice Chancellor, Chief Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Officer at the Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education.

“PASSHE endeavors not only to be a national model but a global model for inclusive excellence.”

Diversity, Equity & Inclusion (DEI)

What does this mean for PennWest University?

Collaboration to make DEI
“a movement not
a moment”

Breaking down silos
in our communities;
achieve inclusion of
all diversity groups

Focus on building relationships for retention efforts
which foster
inclusion
