

Do you need money for school?

Apply for one or more of our scholarships that award between $500 to $30,000 annually to hundreds of students just like you.

Is your GPA 2.0 or higher? Then apply!

We offer scholarships for a wide range of factors including financial need, academic merit, personal experience and specific academic goals. We have awards for students attending two- or four-year colleges and universities, and trade or vocational schools.

What you'll need to apply:

- Unofficial transcripts.
- Student Aid Report (SAR) from the FAFSA.*
- Letter(s) of recommendation.

Follow us on social media:

Questions? Contact Jennifer Marino, scholarship specialist, at marinoj@pghfdn.org.

Learn more and apply online at www.PittsburghFoundation.org/scholarships

Apply beginning mid-November.

Scholar-Tips

Follow these scholarship best practices to maximize your opportunities.

Apply Early- Apply Often

Applications open in November. The more you apply to, the better your chances!

Stay Organized

Use a system to remember what needs to be done. Mark your calendar, set reminders and check your email accounts; we send reminders too!

Use the Search Feature

Utilize the drop-down menu and keyword search function of our website to find scholarships. Mix it up, reset and take notes as you search.

Make Your Essay Count

Your essay is a crucial component of the application. It's the best way to tell your story. Be detailed, thorough and check for typos.

Don't Get Discouraged

Sometimes, even your best efforts don't yield a scholarship award. Keep trying for each year you are enrolled in school.

Don't Miss Out Over a Missed Deadline

Use the notes section below to keep track of scholarship names and due dates.

My Scholarship Notes:

