

Dear PASFAA Members,

I am honored and delighted to extend a warm welcome to each and every member of the Pennsylvania Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators (PASFAA). As your new President, I am excited to embark on this journey with you and work collaboratively to advance our shared mission of promoting access to higher education through effective financial aid administration.

Our association plays a crucial role in supporting students and families in their pursuit of academic excellence, and I am confident that together, we can make a positive impact on the lives of those we serve. PASFAA has a rich history of fostering collaboration, professional development, and advocacy, and I am committed to building on this legacy during my tenure.

I encourage each member to actively engage in our community, share your expertise, and take advantage of the resources and opportunities that PASFAA offers. Whether you are a seasoned financial aid professional or a newcomer to the field, your unique perspective and contributions are valued and essential to the success of our association.

In the coming months, we will focus on enhancing communication, providing relevant training and development opportunities, and advocating for policies that support our students and institutions. I am eager to hear your ideas, concerns, and suggestions as we work together to navigate the challenges and opportunities in the ever-evolving landscape of higher education and FAFSA Simplification.

Thank you for your dedication to the field of student financial aid, and I look forward to a productive and fulfilling year ahead. Please feel free to reach out to me or any member of the executive council with your thoughts and input. Together, we will continue to make a positive impact on the lives of students and their families.

Thank you,

Jared M. Menghini, MHA
President, Pennsylvania Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators (PASFAA)
